

COMMUNITY & FAMILY RESOURCES

Inspiring prevention, treatment and recovery

New Drug Trends

Presenters: Webster County Detective Cody Harris; Sgt. Nick Hochberger with the Central Iowa Drug Task Force; Becky Connelly, MS, CPS; Jenn McEvoy, BA; Ramona Rowbotham, BS, CPS; Danielle Weber, BS

9a-12p

OR

1-4p

May 16, 2025

OR

May 23, 2025

Purpose:

1. Participants will increase their awareness of new and re-occurring drug trends
2. Know the signs and symptoms of misuse related to new and re-occurring drugs
3. Recognize methods of ingestion for different substances
4. Increased understanding of the different types of marijuana products, differences in THC levels, knowledge of CBD and the differences between medical vs. recreational use of marijuana
5. Increased understanding in the difference between legalization and decriminalization of marijuana
6. Participants will increase their understanding of the physical and mental health effects of psilocybin
7. Participants will recognize similarities in the way the brain reacts to substances and gambling
8. Increased understanding of the prevalence and impact of sports betting in Iowa

Who Should Attend: CFR Staff and Community Partners

CEUs AVAILABLE: 3 hours

Cost: $45

Location: Web Based via Zoom

Register @ <https://cfrtraining.wufoo.com/forms/z1sqemnq09so705/>

Registration closes on 5/13/25

Community and Family Resources is part of the Integrated Provider Network, with services funded by the Iowa Department of Public Health and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration.